

Casper After School Program for Education and Recreation

C.A.S.P.E.R. 4th & 5th Grade Recreational Sports

About C.A.S.P.E.R. - The City of Casper Recreation Division and the Natrona County School District work together to provide an opportunities for 4th and 5th graders to have interscholastic sports experiences. The C.A.S.P.E.R. program is open to all 4th and 5th graders. Sports leagues are offered in Co-Ed Volleyball, Girl's and Basketball, and Boy's Basketball. All coaches are volunteers. Kids play on their school team and practices are held at the child's school (Note: If a school is unable to field a complete team, players will be combined with another school to form a team. Practices are scheduled by the coach and practices are held once or twice per week. Games are on Saturday's at the Casper Recreation Center. Each season lasts 7-8 weeks with 6 officiated contests. The C.A.S.P.E.R. program has an "everyone plays" philosophy and emphasizes sportsmanship, teamwork, fun, healthy lifestyles, and trying new things. Community Recreation Foundation scholarships are available in case of inability to pay registration fee. Register at the Casper Recreation Center, 1801 E 4th St.
